

Charles J. Ten Brink
Curriculum Vitae

Education:

- Master of Arts in Library Science, University of Michigan, August 1985. Member Beta Phi Mu.
- Juris Doctor, Cum Laude, University of Michigan Law School, May 1979.
- Bachelor of Science in Mathematics, with High Honors, Michigan State University, June 1976. Member Phi Beta Kappa.

Academic Experience:

- Michigan State University College of Law
Professor of Law, Director of Library & Technology Services, 2001 to present
- University of Chicago, D'Angelo Law Library
Associate Law Librarian and Lecturer in Law, 1992 to 2001
Head of Public Services, 1987 to 1992
Head of Reference Services, August 1986 to June 1987
Reference Librarian, October 1985 to July 1986.
- University of Michigan Law Library - Reference Intern, December 1984 to August 1985

Courses:

Advanced Legal Research, American Legal History, Land Use Planning

Legal practice:

Corporate, real estate and municipal law; admitted to practice law in Illinois, Michigan, Indiana, Florida, and various federal courts

- Haskell & Perrin, Chicago, 1979-1980
- Dickinson, Wright, Moon, Van Dusen & Freeman, Lansing, 1981-1983
- Healthquest Corporation, South Bend, 1983-1984

Professional Affiliations and Activities:

American Association of Law Schools
American Association of Law Libraries
 Academic Special Interest Section
 Readers Services Special Interest Section
American Library Association

Publications:

A Jurisprudential Approach to Teaching Legal Research, 39 NEW ENG. L. REV. ____ (2005)

Cell Phones, Socializing & Psychotic Behavior: A Brief Guide to Library Etiquette, 8 GREEN BAG 121 (2004)

Presentations:

“Preserving Access to the Culture of the 20th Century,” presentation to the Arts, Communication, Entertainment and Sports Law Section of the Michigan State Bar Association, September 2001

“Re-Thinking Information Services for Academics,” presentation at the annual meeting of the American Association of Law Libraries, July 2001

“Failure Analysis of Computer-Assisted Legal Research Systems,” presentation at the annual meeting of the American Association of Law Libraries, July 1992