MSU College of Law students also have status as MSU lifelong education students and thereby have all the rights and privileges of Michigan State University students. A student who has a cumulative grade point average of at least 3.0 and has successfully completed twenty-nine (29) credits at the Law College may take up to six (6) hours of elective credits in professionally-related graduate level courses at other colleges at Michigan State University. Grades from these courses of “C” or above will be accepted for transfer credit. Grades below “C” will not be transferred or recorded. These courses will count toward the maximum of five (5) total hours of Credit/No Credit grading option under the rules of the Law College.

The Family Educational Rights & Privacy Act of 1974 does not permit MSU College of Law to request official student transcripts. It is the responsibility of the student to ensure that an official transcript from the MSU Registrar is sent to the Law College Registrar’s Office at the completion of each course. Credits earned at other graduate schools as approved on this form will be counted toward fulfillment of the student’s graduation requirement only after an official transcript is received by the Law College Registrar’s Office.
