Waiver of Work Limitation Policy (J.D. Students Only)

Work Limitation Policy (in part): Students may not engage in employment in excess of twenty (20) hours per week when enrolled in more than twelve (12) credit hours in a regular semester (fall/spring) or seven (7) credit hours in the summer. (A student who has earned at least forty-five (45) credits hours may petition the Associate Dean for Student Engagement for a waiver on grounds of exceptional circumstances.)

Student Name (please print): ______________________________

PID#: ____________________________ Email: ____________________________@msu.edu

Semester exceeding 20 hours per week working: Fall 20___ Spring 20___ Summer 20___

Anticipated hours per week: _____ Credits hours earned (must be at least 45): _____

I am requesting a waiver of the work limitation policy for the following reason(s):

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

NOTE: A student who is requesting a waiver of the work limitation policy must consult with the Associate Dean for Student Engagement.

Student’s Signature:_____________________________________________________

Assoc. Dean for Student Engagement’s Signature:_____________________________

Date:_______________________________