EXHIBITION - USA presented by the German Federal Bar in cooperation with the American Bar Association

The replica of the Lawyers Without Rights exhibit was made possible through the financial support of Professor Nicholas Mercuro, Michigan State University and MSU's James Madison College.

MONDAY, APRIL 8, 2024

Noon - 1:30 p.m.

Castle Board Room (Room 343)

The Lawyers without Rights exhibition, currently on display at MSU College of Law, consists of 25 panels telling the story of many German Jewish lawyers and judges who were expunged from office and the German Federal Bar during the Third Reich. The exhibition has traveled to more than 65 U.S. venues and this replicate exhibit produced by and for MSU College of Law will be launched across the U.S. on July 1st.

This exhibition will be on display in the third floor gallery area from January 1, 2024 through June 2024. For additional information contact Professor Nicholas Mercuro: mercuro@law.msu.edu
